OVER 120 ATTEND ROCHESTER SCOUT NIGHT DINNER

The annual Scout Night Awards Dinner for Rochester Troop 30 was held at the Rochester Woman's Club with a large gathering of friends and parents present. A patriotic color scheme of red, white and blue was used to decorate the large hall. A centerpiece of red, white and blue candles in a candelabra was used for the head table and Uncle Same hats and candles were used on the other tables. The four patrols of scouts sat together at one long table. Everett Hardy, Institutional Representative for the Woman's Club, sponsoring organization, gave the invocation.

Head table guests were Robert Doane, toastmaster, and Troop 30 committee chairman; Mrs. Frank T. Howland, president of the Woman's Club; Calvin Daggett, scoutmaster for Troop 30; Harry Brown, Jr., North District Chairman for Cachalot Council; Mr. Hardy; Mrs. George Hill, Jr., minister of First Congregational Church of Rochester; Stephen Lawrence, troop committeeman; and Nathan Lawrence, cubmaster. Invited members of the troop committee who were unable to attend were Arnold Chadwick, Alexander Thomson, Douglas Church and Isaac Arenberg.

At the conclusion of a baked ham dinner served by members of the Woman's Club, the opening exercises started with the salute to the flag and patrol inspection by Mr. Daggett. He made the announcement at this time that the next regular meeting of the troop would be held at the clubhouse on Friday, March 3rd.

Mr. Doane introduced Mrs. Howland who brought greetings from members of the Woman's Club and expressed appreciation for the work of the scout leaders.

Harry Brown, North District chairman, and principal speaker of the evening, was introduced next. He spoke on the merits of scouting and noted that many national figures had been scouts in their youth and this was also true of the new group of astronauts. Mr. Brown said that there was an unusually heavy scout program scheduled for the year. Events that he mentioned were a University of Scouting course being held at Fort Rodman, the Scout-O-Rama at the Armory in New Bedford on April 14 and 15, the Council Camp-O-Ree on June 2nd, 3rd and 4th, and the District Camp-O-Ree in October. Mr. Brown also mentioned the Filmont Expedition, a trip that may be taken by any scout in the Council who would like to go during the three weeks starting July 10 through August 1. The cost is $175. He concluded his remarks by thanking the Woman's Club for its assistance to the troop.

Scout Richard Potter was next on the program and he read a very interesting essay which he wrote on the history of scouting, "How Scouting Was Started".

HOW SCOUTING WAS STARTED

Boy Scouting was started in England when a retired British soldier by the name of Sir Robert Baden Powell took twenty boys on a camping trip. One year later, Baden Powell published the first handbook for the boy scouts. This book was entitled "Scouting For Boys". Scouting in America came about when in 1909 an American businessman named Mr. William D. Boyce was visiting England. Mr. Boyce was lost in one of the heavy fogs and a young boy came up to him and asked if there was anything he could do to help. Mr. Boyce told the boy where he wanted to go. When they reached the place, the boy refused a tip saying: "Scouts do not take tips for doing good turns. Haven't you heard of Ba-

EDITORIAL - PURE DEMOCRACY

"Government by the people; government in which the supreme power is retained by the people directly"-Webster's Dictionary.

As towns become cities and small towns become large towns, this form of government is fast becoming a rare privilege. The people, as a supreme authority, representing themselves in a parliamentary group, engaging in debate and casting a direct vote, is the ideal form of government. It must be classed as one of the greatest ideas of man to ever have been made a working reality. We have it. It is the most precious of our inheritance from the past. It will not be for long. Towns outgrow their ability to accommodate all their citizens in a democratic parliament. In the future, we will look back and recall with pride and loss that we once had a "do it yourself" Town Meeting. Once gone, it won't return.

The Mattapoisett Town Meeting will be held on March 6th. The purpose; to exercise the supreme power of the people of the town. No representative will ever do it wiser. None will ever do a more satisfactory job than the individual who is representing himself, for he spends his own money with a healthy determination to make it do the most good. This is one place where an individual may be heard and where a vote really counts.

Even the qualified voters who do not attend the Town Meeting have a great effect. For every vote which is not cast increases the strength of those cast. If 200 votes are recorded, when 400 are possible, then every vote has the strength of 2. A small minority may thus control the finances, and thus the taxes, for the majority of the taxpayers for the next year simply because they took the trouble to attend.

There was a time in our History when "taxation without representation" was enough to cause our revolution. Are we now so weak that we won't give up one night a year for the same principle? Representative vote can only be had with the majority of the people casting votes. Let's turn out and run the town with a majority vote.

BOOK REVIEWS HEARD AT WOMAN'S CLUB

A program of book reviews was presented at a meeting of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club held last Thursday afternoon in the Congregational Church parish hall. A short introduction was given by Miss Dorothy Fox who said that the books chosen to be reviewed were related to the woman's world.

Mrs. Charles Smith reviewed "Fig Leaf" by Eve Merriam which pertained to women's fashions. "Ninety Dozen Glasses" by Marguerite Cullman was reviewed by Miss Fox. This book gives an account of the author's experiences in Brussels, Belgium when her husband was an ambassador to the United States Exposition at the World's Fair. A novel, "Corporation Wife", by Catherine Gaskin was reviewed by Mrs. Harold Banks. The program was arranged by the Literature-Drama Group, Mrs. Smith, chairman.

The business meeting was conducted by the first vice-president, Mrs. Orum Kerst, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Ross Hopkins. The invocation was given by Mrs. David Moore.

A report of the Mid-Winter meeting of the State Federation held recently in Boston was given by Mrs. Grace Engesser, federation secretary. A corsage was presented to Mrs. Engesser in observance of her birthday.

A letter was read from the Mattapoisett Improvement Association asking support from the members for the two articles in the town war-

TO THE VOTERS OF MATTAPOISETT

For the past 3 years I have been a member of the Mattapoisett School Committee, and have found it to be a deeply serious, interesting and very gratifying job.

It has been an education in itself to me, with much more to learn as time goes on. One outstanding fact that has impressed me a great deal is that a good basic foundation in training and subject matter in our elementary school is of utmost importance to the students as they go on to the higher grades.

My term is about to expire, so may I take this opportunity to thank you for being able to serve you in the past 3 years. If it be your pleasure, I would be more than willing to serve again in the same capacity in the next 3 years.

Thank You

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

In the 1960 State of Massachusetts tax report Mattapoisett has been listed as having one of the highest per capita taxes in the State. For the year of 1960 Mattapoisett had a real estate tax of $80.00 and a per capita tax of $154.51. Most of the towns and cities in the surrounding area had a per capita tax under $90.00 with the exception of New Bedford which had a per capita tax of $103.16.

The per capita direct tax is the total assessment in 1960 on real and personal property and polls divided by the 1960 population.

It has been also noted that the 1960 town meeting broke all spending records at a cost of approximately $100,000 per hour.

With these facts in mind it is obviously urgent that everyone attend this year's town meeting, including the citizens that are complaining about high taxes and the unbalanced tax service rating for the preservation of home ownership and efficient spending. This

On February 8, 1910 scouting was started in America, and on January 2, 1911 the Boy Scout Office was opened in New York with James A. West the first Chief Scout Executive. Membership was 61,495 scouts and scouters. In 1912, Sea Scouts were established and the Boy's Life became the official scout magazine. In 1916 a federal charter was granted to protect the name and insignia and the boy scout uniform was authorized. The first world jamboree was held in England in 1920. In 1928 membership was 819,791, boy's life 175,000. The Cub Scouts were launched in 1930 with 5,102 cubs by the end of the year. In 1938 a man by the name of Waite Phillips gave some of the land for the scout camp called Philmont Scout Branch. By Richard Potter

Special guest of Scout Potter was Mrs. Hester Sears from New Bedford. A very competent demonstration of knots was performed by Donald Lynch, Robert Lawrence, Richard Nolan, Raymond Daggett, Kenneth Mosakowski and Francis Cabral. This was followed by a first aid skit and scouts who participated were Wayne Lawrence, Robert Balzarini and Allen Ross. Treatment of a cut finger and the correct use of hand, knee and ankle bandage was demonstrated. The value of the first aid program was stressed and it also teaches a scout to be helpful. An interesting explanation of the badges of rank was given by scout Aime Poirier.

One cub scout, Alton Ellis, was graduated into boy scouts during a picturesque candlelight ceremony. Members of the Buffalo Patrol led by Raymond Daggett assisted in the ceremony. Mr. Daggett and Alton repeated the Scout Oath and all spoke the Scout Laws in unison. Mr. Irving Ellis affixed the pin to his son's uniform.

mended him on his capability as a scoutmaster and their good fortune to have him as a leader of the troop. In his remarks, Mr. Daggett stressed the need for adult help to keep the boys interested and active. Anyone who has spare time and willing to help would be very welcome at the meetings on Friday nights. Merit badge councillors are also needed and help for camp work to be done at Camp Rayford in order to pass requirements. At the present time, he noted, there are 28 registered boy scouts and there will be 35 or 40 by the end of the year. They are divided into four patrols: Pinetree led by Donald Hardy, Buffalo led by Raymond Daggett, Panther led by Francis Cabral and Hound led by Roger Nolan.

Presentation of awards was a highlight of the evening. Mr. Doane presented the tenderfoot pins to Allen Ross, Herbert Saunders, James Hartley, Warren Meservey, William Chamberlain, Henry Saunders and Jerry Wainio. Second class badges were presented by Scoutmaster Daggett to Robert Lawrence, Robert Balzarini and Wayne Lawrence. Mr. Brown presented the first class badges to Rufus Winsor, Thomas Kenney, Raymond Daggett and Kenneth Mosakowski. All scouts were pinned by one of their parents present.

Mrs. Everett Hardy was general chairman of the dinner and her assistants were Mesdames Greenwood Hartley, Merton Hartley, Ward Benner, George Church, Raymond King and David Fearing. Mrs. Henry Smith was in charge of the dining room and decorations, and Mrs. Timothy O'Brien ticket reservations. Mothers of scouts provided delicious assorted cakes for dessert. The evening's program concluded with a prayer given by Mrs. Hill.
